1. [] Polish freighters in the Polish Merchant Marine, which made trips to Riga, Latvia. On each trip to Riga [] stay in port from two to three days.
2. On a number of occasions while in the Port of Riga, our ship was berthed east of the Riga Military Airfield. [] saw Soviet Mig 15 jet airplanes taking off and landing on the airfield. Dock hands who loaded and unloaded our ship were afraid to talk to any of the crew but I managed to talk to one or two who made some comments on the airfield which was located west of where our ship was tied up.
3. ✓ In file in CIA Map Library is a map CONFIDENTIAL of the port facilities at Riga, Latvia, to which the following legend applies: (1) Location of the Riga Military airfield. A large airfield with two concrete runways. Hangars or buildings were not visible from the ship. (2) Runway ran east and west. Mig 15 jet aircraft were seen taking off in an easterly direction, which flew right over our ship. (3) Runway ran north and south. Mig 15 jet aircraft were seen landing in the northerly direction. (4) Indicates where the Polish ship was tied up in the Port of Riga while being loaded and unloaded.
